

IDEPO - INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR ELECTION FORM

I, _____, elect to be treated as an Independent Contractor (“Contractor”) to perform services for or on behalf of iDepo Reporters (“iDepo”), which are outside iDepo’s usual course of business. I have submitted or will submit a W-9 in connection with these services.

If I have my own corporation to perform these services, the name of my corporation is _____ and the address of my corporation is _____.

I understand and agree that (please initial each statement):

____ I have the right to perform these same services for other clients even while I am performing services for or on behalf of iDepo.

____ I have the right to control the means, method and manner by which I will perform my services.

____ I have the right to set or negotiate my own rates for my services.

____ I am not required to perform these services at any location specified by iDepo. (Typically, the noticing attorney and/or law firm designates the location of my services.)

____ I have not received training from iDepo to perform these services.

____ I am not required to wear a uniform provided by iDepo.

____ I have the right to hire subcontractors and/or employees to perform portions of my services.

____ I know that iDepo will not withhold any state or federal income taxes for my services.

____ I am not eligible to participate in iDepo’s health insurance plan, employee pension plan, vacation pay, sick pay, or any other fringe benefit plan.

____ I am not entitled to receive any unemployment benefits or workers’ compensation benefits from iDepo.
